

Where I Was Born

In a pedestrian crossing
I'm having an eye contact with like a office worker
Who is making a flying start
Yes, I also take you an indicator

Lazy afternoon sunlight
In a limited provincial city
Senses of togetherness
That can't take us anywhere

You said that after talking with others
You think "I want to live", I see
Why is that, I also think them lovable
Who are on grounds of their youth
Their futures are taken delight, aren't they?
At last the problem is the principle permissions of exceptions in the value system
Also for us, certainly existing in this nature world

Like I don't feel attachment to
This community I was born and grown up since I was a child
Surely we are looking for
The shape of unknown city

No such as Hamiltonian
Unfortunately, places are different
Sometimes approaching Bayesian inference timidly
That person also would be grown up
Breathing a city's air like us
Yes, like fishes of heaven
Living their lives intensely

We say "ROBUST"

The spell is a usual word for us

I still climb up and stand up

In this dear city

故郷

※Japanese

横断歩道でフライング渡りする
ビジネスマンらしき人と目が合って
そう、私も指標にしている
あなたをだ

狭い地方都市に
気だるい午後の陽差し
何処にも行けない連帯感

話をした後生きたいと思いませんかそうですか
何故でしょうか私も若さを
盾にとる人はかわいいと
あの子達はこれからが愉しみですねえ
結局のところ価値体系における
例外領域の原理的許容なんですよ
自然界に確実に存在するわたしらだって

この小さな頃から生まれ育ったコミュニティに
何の執着も感じないように
きっと探しているのだ
未だ見たこともない都市の姿を

ハミルトニアン何かじゃ無いよ
場が違うんだ残念ながら
ベイズ推計にちっちゃく言い寄ったりして
あの人もこのように都市の街の空気を
吸って育つのですよ ええあの
生き急ぐ天人魚のように

ROBUST とわたしたちの間では
決まりきった呪文を口にする

まだ這い上がり立ち上がる
このなつかしい都市の中で
